I still have four shirt boxes full of menus, theater programmes, letters, Xmas cards from Richard and Francine, etc. There is also, the nearly complete JOHN MURRAY ALBEMARLE STREET, W. (1950) edition.

There is also the maquette of the Sherlock Holmes Statue at Meiringen...

I have thousands of items I don't know what to do with: Jim's photographs, 20" X 16" black and white and also in colour. LPs, and stamps. If I have to move to a smaller home most of these items will end up in a skip... No plans for moving though, while I can manage the stairs!
